What did Queen Elizabeth I really look like? The portraits give us some idea of her physical appearance, but from them alone it is not easy to visualise what she really looked like. While the pale faced woman with reddish-gold hair is common to all of them, it seems that every painter has captured a slightly different image of her.

Appearance of Queen Elizabeth I : Tudor Queen : Page 1

"Yet notwithstanding that her Majesty was at this time in her 67 th [sic] year, seeing that she was chosen Queen on the 16 th of November, 1558, in the 33 rd year of her age, and has thus borne the heavy burthen of ruling a kingdom thirty-four years, she need not indeed - to judge both from her person and appearance - yield much to a young girl of sixteen. She has a very dignified, serious and royal look, and rules her kingdom with great discretion."
